Live Auction

LA1 Kindergarten Art The Dandelion

Kindergarteners are like dandelion seeds- beautiful and fun, then off growing like a weed before you can make your wish! Preserve a special memory of their start to elementary school with this unique work showcasing finger stamp dandelion seeds on canvas.

LA2 1st Grade Art Butterflies

Just like butterflies, your first graders used ink pens, water and their boundless creativity to metamorphose everyday coffee filters into a beautiful expression of light and color. Get in your bid before this work flutters away.

LA3 2nd Grade Art Nature's Weather

Looking to nature, each of our 2nd graders used acrylic paint to create an original work on a tree limb. Each piece has been securely mounted to a frame to form a welcoming wreath, perfect for the home or garden.

LA4 3rd Grade Art Kandinsky Circles

With inspiration from expressionist artist, Wassily Kandinsky, our 3rd graders captured balance and harmony in hand-cut felt circles secured with a button. Bring color and calm to any room with this warm and inviting piece.

LA5 4th Grade Art The Art of Cornhole!

Have fun with your art with this awesome cornhole set hand-painted by our 4th graders. This professionally-constructed set was built by the experts at Ultra Bag Toss right here in San Diego. The folding feet and carry handles make the boards easy to store and use, but the unique 4th grade finish makes them art! Eight bean bags are included so you can start playing today!

LA6 5th Grade Art Happy Heart

Scraps of wood destined for the fire pit have been forged into a wood sculpture by your 5th graders. Each unique, hand painted piece was carefully placed into the final collaborative heart to bring color and joy to any empty wall.

LA7 6th Grade Art Wire Figures

Drawing inspiration from metal sculptors, the 6th graders have created incredible wire figures as unique as they are. Can you spot the handstand, the cowboy hat or torch? A metaphor for the beauty of differences, suitable for any room.

LA8 Raise A Paddle: Recess Rack & Scooter boards

It's time for every SurfRider's favorite subject, PE! But wait, the jump ropes are over there, the hula hoops are under that, and all the playground balls just rolled away...Coach G needs a Recess Rack! This sturdy, stainless steel organizational system rolls everything our kids need to get moving into place and back away in no time! And speaking of wheels, lets raise the paddle for our own set of scooter boards! We've borrowed scooter boards from The Heights and they're a hit! And don't worry, these are not the finger-smashers of our youth. Oh no, these scooter boards feature large, durable outdoor casters and an over-sized seating area that put tons of space between hands and wheels, plus they offer greater mobility and control for greater fun! Perfect for Wheels Day and all school year long!

1 recess rack and 1 set of scooter boards (plus shipping): $1,360. 2 recess racks and 1 set of 6 scooter boards (plus shipping): $2034
